

Nadine Dereza, Specialist Conference Moderator, Gets Fantastic Feedback

14.02.2013

by Raleigh Addington

Great to receive fantastic feedback for Nadine Dereza for her role in moderating a banking client's conference this week. Nadine's a highly experienced journalist and presenter, who has worked for, amongst others, the BBC, Sky and CNN. A specialist conference moderator, she's brilliant at picking out and developing the salient points in a discussion, and at keeping an event energised throughout.
