

Nadine Dereza is an award-winning, national, and international broadcaster and journalist, presenting business, news and entertainment programmes on TV. She chairs, hosts and moderates conferences, panel discussions and live events in person and virtually. She does this for a diverse range of clients across many industries and sectors in the UK and internationally. Nadine recently presented for the world's number one business and financial news network CNBC - hosting their technology programme IoT: Powering the Digital Economy, investigating how digital innovation is reshaping industries.

Nadine co-produces and co-hosts The Television Podcast for the Royal Television Society London, with a roster of contributors and journalists including titans of television, media moguls and industry giants who live and breathe TV. Nadine has also presented for Associated Press, BBC, CNN, SABC, Simply Money, Sky TV, Summit TV and Talk Radio. With her in-depth knowledge of business and finance, she was named 'Financial Journalist of the Year' during her time at the Financial Times and Summit TV. Over the years, she has worked with the full business spectrum – from entrepreneurs to management teams to CEOs and has interviewed key policy and decision makers, as well as countless global politicians.

Department for Business, Innovation and Skills appointed Nadine as a Non-Executive Director of the WorldSkills London Board. This was for the duration of the 'Skills Olympics' 4-year project to promote best practice apprenticeships and vocational training in the UK. She played an integral role in changing the way apprenticeships were perceived by pupils, parents, carers, teachers, employers and policy makers. In doing so, she helped to lay the foundations for 'WorldSkills UK Live' - the largest experiential skills, apprenticeships and careers event in the UK.

Nadine is the founder and Media Director of Babaco Media, communication skills specialists who prepare clients for media interviews, presentations, crisis planning and parliamentary committee hearings. She is a Non-Executive Director for virtual and CVTV, a Fellow of the Chartered Management Institute (CMI), and an Ambassador for Workers' Educational Association (WEA). Nadine is a judge for The International Broadcasting Convention's 'Accelerators Media Innovation Programme'; The Business Books Awards; and Young Enterprise. She is co-author of the 5-star rated best seller Insider Secrets of Public Speaking.

Client Feedback

Sage

Many thanks for moderating our CEO Panel. The whole event wouldn't have been the success it was without Nadine's input. We really appreciated the amount of preparation she did on the subject and her rapport with our panellists was excellent.

Heathrow Community Engagement Board

Magnificent Chairing of the first Heathrow Community Engagement Board Question Time public event. It was mission critical to have a professional, independent and robust Chair. We were thrilled to work with Nadine and to have her support and meticulous insight in advance and on the day.

We couldn't have done it without her, and we were very pleased with the panel discussion and the engagement with their stakeholders. Several of the panel mentioned directly to us how well Nadine chaired the event and appreciated her approach.

CPA Australia

Nadine was a huge asset to the conference. She asked great questions of the speakers in all the Q&A sessions, kept the whole event running smoothly and all delivered with a rare combination of professionalism and a great sense of humour.

Highly recommend Nadine to any conference or event organiser looking for a professional host to keep a busy day on track and engage the delegates with intelligent comments and context.

National Autistic Society

The crisis media workshop was an invaluable session and has definitely made us feel more prepared and reassured, giving our team the skills and confidence to manage any possible interviews.

We really value Nadine's expertise, advice and feedback.

World Crane and Transport Summit

It's just fantastic to have Nadine as a chair. She is so engaged with the content and committed to making it successful. We have had nothing but positive feedback.

Aggreko

Nadine did a tremendous job as anchor at our global conference. We were particularly impressed by a couple of things: the quickness she got "up to speed" with the complexities of our business, and how she leveraged her engaging personality to get the best from her interviewees and audience.

EPCA

It was a real pleasure to have Nadine as our moderator for this year's annual meeting. Many participants mentioned in their feedback that her moderation was "excellent" and on behalf of the EPCA Board of Directors, I warm-heartedly congratulate her.

Women in Business Awards

Nadine did a great job at the Women in Business Awards. She held the evening together brilliantly, shared some great insights and asked very pertinent questions. We've never known an awards night where the winners have been so eloquent on stage, and believe that was down to her making them feel at ease while at the same time setting just the right tone with her Q&A.

Heathrow Airport

I have hired many conference facilitators in the past, including celebrity newsreaders. Nadine is my preferred choice for conferences; she comes well prepared and is great in engaging with speakers and delegates. Great sense of humour too!

Infosys

Nadine did a great job at the Infosys annual European client event, taking time to get to know the client and its audience, as well as working closely with the executive producer to understand the overall key messages and takeaways.

Nadine is very personable, knows how to put people at their ease, an absolute professional, and we are looking forward to working with Nadine again this year.

Aspect

Intelligent, focussed and great fun to work with, Nadine has the ability to gain a quick understanding of the subject in question, and manages to cut to the chase in a professional and where appropriate light-hearted manner. She is a fantastic writer, editor and presenter.

Institute of Customer Service

Nadine did an incredible job in hosting and facilitating our Annual Conference. We particularly appreciate the personal care and attention she showed in understanding our objectives and helping us achieve them.

Global E-Commerce Summit

Nadine as a presenter and chair, did a truly excellent job. Not only was she always very well prepared, informed about the contents addressed during the summit and the backgrounds of the individual guest speakers - she also showed a great sense of humour, spontaneity and collegiality towards the organization. We have received nothing but positive feedback from our delegates, speakers and visitors, who highly appreciated her professionalism and personality.

Leo Pharmaceuticals

We loved working with Nadine, a true professional. Her credibility and charisma came across to the entire audience from the very moment she took to the stage. Her introduction was very insightful – the examples she used to emphasise the importance of having a clear goal, working collaboratively and responding to change were perfect.

Strata Creative Communications

As always Nadine did an outstanding job and the feedback has been brilliant. She really got under the skin of this complex and difficult subject namely the role of banks going forward and gave the audience a valuable and engaging insight into what this country's most senior bankers are thinking at this time of change in the world's banking system.

Baron Darzi of Denham

Thank you for your assistance at our Global Health Policy Summit. The panel sessions success was crucial to the overall success of the Summit and the impact it will have going forward. The feedback indicated that these were very successful and this was achieved through no small measure by your moderation.

Chemical Industries Association

A big thank you to Nadine for so expertly chairing and facilitating our CIA Brexit conference. The feedback has been very positive and we were all particularly impressed by the sharpness of her questions and ability to engage all the speakers and the audience.
